INTRODUCTION

“It’s relationships that change children...young people thrive when adults care about them on a one to one level and when they have a sense of belonging to a caring community.”

Our school is a place where every person has the right to be themselves, to be included and to learn in a safe and happy environment. Everyone at our school is equal and treats each another with respect and kindness. Our school believes that any form of hate crime, hate incident or harassment is totally unacceptable and must not be tolerated.

All members of the school community share a collective responsibility for tackling hate crime, hate incidents and harassment should it occur and to work together to promote positive behaviour. The school acknowledges it has a legal duty to prevent and tackle all forms of hate crime, hate incidents and harassment behaviour. Our policy has been drawn up with the involvement of the whole school community and complements the Statement of Shared Values on which Roath Park Primary School bases its work.

This policy is designed to be read alongside the principles and practices enshrined in the school’s: Anti-bullying Policy; Respect, Expectations and Behaviour Policy; Attendance Policy and Safeguarding/Child Protection Policy.

In setting policy objectives for our school, we will have due regard to the Equality Act 2010 general duty to:

- Eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited under the Act.
- Advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it; this means removing or minimising disadvantages suffered by persons who share a relevant protected characteristic that are connected to that characteristic.
- Take steps to meet the needs of persons who share a relevant protected characteristic that are different from the needs of persons who do not share it.

We will ensure that all pupils, parents, staff, governors, and others are aware of this policy and know that appropriate action will be taken. We acknowledge that hate crime, hate incidents and harassment can and does happen in all schools, play & youth settings, as well as in the wider community; and that hate crime, hate incidents and harassment can happen to adults in the workplace. Our school will endeavour to respond appropriately and involve external agencies where appropriate.

AIMS

This policy, in partnership with the Anti-Bullying Policy, is essential to support our whole school ethos, which is to ensure that children can learn without fear, feel safe, secure, confident and happy free from humiliation, harassment, oppression and abuse. It is designed to prevent hate crime, hate incidents and harassment wherever possible, to respond consistently in line with agreed procedures should it occur and to provide support to those involved as appropriate. Objectives and desired outcomes of the policy.

WHAT IS HATE CRIME, HATE INCIDENTS AND HARASSMENT?

Definition of hate crime

A hate crime is defined as any criminal offence which is perceived by the victim or any other person to be motivated by hostility or prejudice based on a person's race or perceived race; religion or perceived religion; sexual orientation or perceived sexual orientation; disability or perceived disability and any crime motivated by hostility or prejudice against a person who is transgender or perceived to be transgender.

Hate Crimes can include:

- Physical attack/assault
- Criminal damage, damage to property, offensive graffiti, arson
- Harassment
- Hate mail
- Causing harassment, alarm or distress (Public Order Act 1986)

Definition of a hate incident

A hate incident is any non-crime incident which is perceived by the victim or any other person, to be motivated by a hostility or prejudice based on a person's race or perceived race / religion or perceived religion / sexual orientation or perceived sexual orientation / disability or perceived disability / transgender or perceived to be transgender.

Anyone can be the victim of a hate incident. For example, you may have been targeted because someone thought you were gay even though you're not, or because you have a disabled child. Not all hate incidents will amount to criminal offences, but it is equally important that these are reported and recorded.

Hate incidents can include:

- Verbal abuse, name calling, offensive jokes
- Harassment and insults
- Bullying or intimidation
- Hate mail, abusive phone or text messages
- Malicious complaints
- Online abuse

Hate crime and hate incidents can take many forms, including:

1. Disability

Disability hate crimes and incidents are motivated by prejudice against disabled people. This can be related to a perceived or actual disability/additional need. By perceived, we mean that some children may treat a physical or 'behavioural' characteristic of another child as a disability, and exclude or bully because of that, even though the child him/herself does not consider they have a disability. The other children may regard this characteristic as a disability either through genuine misunderstanding or because of an intolerance of difference.

2. Race

Race hate crime and incidents occurs when a child or young person experiences repeated hostile or offensive behaviour against them based on:

- colour of their skin
- cultural and religious background or traditions
- ethnicity or perceived ethnicity

3. Religion

Religious hate crime and incidents occur when a child or young person experiences repeated hostile or offensive behaviour against them based on their actual or perceived religion, faith or belief. This includes sectarian incidents.

4. Sexual orientation - Homophobic

Homophobic hate crime and hate incidents often occurs as a result of others' prejudice being directed at a child or young person because they:

- are lesbian, gay or bisexual
- are perceived to be lesbian, gay or bisexual because they fit certain stereotypes (e.g. softly spoken boys, girls that like football, etc.)
- have LGB friends or family members
- are perceived as being different

5. Gender identity - Transphobic

Transphobic hate crime and hate incidents often occur as a result of others' prejudice being directed at a child or young person because they:

- are transgender

- are perceived to be transgender
- do not fit with traditional gender norms (e.g. boys with long hair or wearing make-up, girls playing team sports)
- have transgender friends or family members
- are perceived as being different

6. Hate incident motivated by sex or gender

The Government has recently announced that misogyny will be covered under hate crime/hate incidents.

- Misogyny is the vocal or active hatred of women in opposition to women's fundamental rights, such as individual liberty and respect.
- Misandry is the hatred of, contempt for, or prejudice against men or boys in general. Misandry may be manifested in numerous ways, including social exclusion, sexism, hostility, belittling of men, violence against men, and sexual objectification. Possible Signs of hate crime, hate incidents and harassment

Those experiencing hate crime, hate incidents or harassment may show changes in behaviour such as becoming shy and nervous, feigning illness or clinging to adults. Their schoolwork may deteriorate. They may lack concentration or truant from school.

As a school we will:

- Appoint an anti-bullying hate crime, hate incidents and harassment lead.

- Set out clear guidelines for parents/carers wishing to complain about hate crime, hate incidents and harassment
- Set out clear age-appropriate guidelines for pupils wishing to complain about hate crime, hate incidents and harassment
- Ensure all staff model appropriate positive behaviours by example.

Encouraging reporting if hate crime, hate incidents or harassment occurs:

It is important that we create an atmosphere in school where anyone who has experienced hate crime, hate incidents or harassment, or others who know about it, feel that they will be listened to and that action taken will be swift and sensitive to their needs.

Disclosure (telling an adult) can be direct and open or indirect and anonymous. Everyone must realise that not telling means that hate crime, hate incidents and harassment is likely to continue.

Our whole school approach to responding to hate crime, hate incidents and harassment includes:

- Pupils and parents/carers can be assured that their concerns will be responded to with sensitivity.
- All reports will be taken seriously and investigated.
- Confidentiality for anyone who shares information will be respected.
- Opportunities for children to communicate concerns include a problem box access to any member of staff, representation on the School Council and buddies/mentors who will pass on concerns.

A designated person will monitor and collate information on victims and perpetrators of hate crime, hate incidents and harassment and that person will:

- Investigate the incident / establish facts by independently talking to all involved.

- Use appropriate restorative intervention techniques to manage difficulties between perpetrators & targets; encourage reconciliation where this is possible/ feasible.
- Where incidents of hate crime, hate incidents or harassment have been established, implement agreed sanctions consistently as necessary to prevent further incidents.
- Involve parents as early as possible where appropriate.
- Keep accurate, factual records of all reported incidents and the school's response.
- Always follow-up incidents after they have been dealt with and review outcomes to ensure hate crime, hate incidents and harassment has ceased.
- Provide on-going support for those involved where necessary.

The school will offer a Restorative Approach and look to repair harm. It may also, depending on the type of incident, use sanctions, these may include;

- Withdrawing privileges/free time.
- Preventing access to parts of school. • Short- or long-term exclusion, detention or lunchtime exclusion. • Involving parents when necessary.
- Involving appropriate outside agencies.
- Including details on the perpetrator's school record.

Support for staff who have experienced hate crime, hate incidents and harassment

Incidents of hate crime, hate incidents and harassment towards staff, whether by pupils, parents, or colleagues, is unacceptable. The school will seek to comply with advice from the Welsh Government for headteachers and school staff on how to protect themselves from hate crime, hate incidents and harassment and how to tackle it if it happens.

An effective system for keeping records of hate crime, hate incidents and harassment incidents. All incidents will be recorded on MyConcern under the categories listed in the 'Challenging bullying, hate crime, hate incidents and harassment' guidance document.
