Dear RPPS families,

Today is the 130th birthday of Roath Park Primary School. You can find a full history of our wonderful school building here: RPPS - History Of The School

To mark 130 years since the opening of Roath Park Primary School (9th January 1895) we are planning a week of activities. This will take place in the summer term where children, families and the community will have opportunities to celebrate the long and successful history of our school.

Today we have met with our Senedd Parc y Rhath who have presented ideas and concepts for the week of celebration. We are keen to work with our families and community to gauge ideas of how we can mark this occasion and tell the stories of how the school has impacted upon the people of Roath. If you have any ideas or suggestions then please feel free to email me LFitzgerald@roathparkprm.co.uk

During this commemorative year it is also important to note that we continue to work with colleagues at Cardiff Council to rectify issues with the school building.

Penblwydd Hapus Ysgol Gynradd Parc y Rhath!
Happy Birthday Roath Park Primary School!

Best wishes,

All at Roath Park Primary
